

Lesson 1

ACTIVITY SHEET 1

Name: _____

God is the greatest artist, greatest author,
and greatest inventor in the universe.

Looking at God's creation, what can we learn about the God who made it?

Go outside and look around, then write your findings below.

What I see: _____

What I hear: _____

What I can touch: _____

Maybe you see trees and flowers, hear birds singing or kids laughing. Maybe you feel a soft breeze or smell good food being cooked. Everything, from the dirt you stand on to the clouds above you, to the ability you have to move your own hands and feet, is telling you about God.

What do the things all around you tell you about the One who created them? Some ideas for answers are at the bottom of the page, but try to think of your own first!

From what I see, I learn that God is: _____

From what I hear, I learn that God is: _____

From what I touch, I learn that God is: _____

The more we learn about how wonderful God is, the more we want to know! Keep paying attention to the world around you, and keep learning about your wonderful Creator.

Possible Answers:

Orderly, Beautiful, Nothing is too big, Nothing is too small, Controls all things, Knows all things, Is everywhere, Likes colors, Likes music, Powerful, Detailed, Good

ACTIVITY SHEET 2

Lesson 2

From the list below, cross out the sins—the things that are against God’s perfect goodness and holiness—that ultimately separate people from God.

Loving	Helping someone who is hurt	Fighting
Disobeying Parents	Hating in your heart	Cheating
Laughing at a person who is different	Harming your own body	Talking badly about someone
Sharing with others	Hurting someone else	Stealing
Lying	Smiling	Worshiping a false god

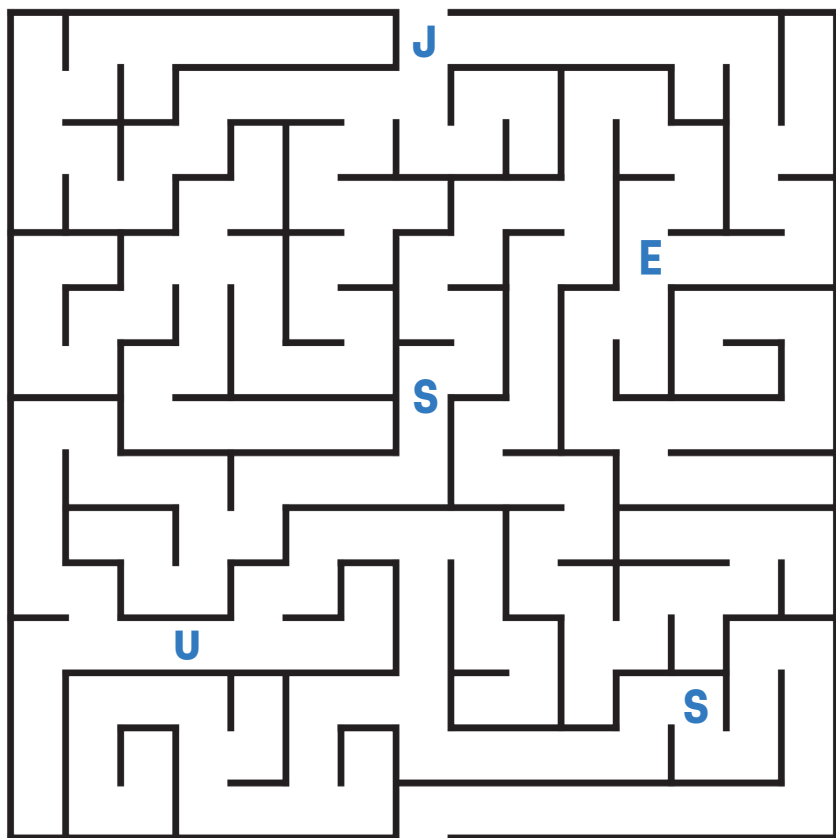

Think about it:

Sin hurts the person doing it and often hurts others also. Write below how sin has affected your life. How have you been hurt by your own sins or by other people’s sins?

ACTIVITY SHEET 3

Follow the right path to heaven.
There is only one way!

HEAVEN

Along the path to heaven, what word do the letters spell out as the only way to heaven? _____
